Body Believed To Be That Of Hitler Found In Berlin

The War Today..

By DeWitt MacKenzie

THE TEXT of this sermon is found in an Associated Press dispatch from Moscow regarding V-E day observance there.

Thousands of wildly celebrating Moscovites, the message says, gathered in front of the United States embassy and staged the greatest spontaneous tribute to America ever seen in the Russian capital.

"Long live America!" they shouted. "Long live Truman! Long live the memory of Roosevelt! Long live the great American people!"

That's a mighty friendly gesture and seems to have a direct relation to a question one hears debated daily by the man-in-the-street: Is it inevitable that the Big Three—America, Britain and Russia—will come to a parting of the ways because of differences of view in international matters?

Let's even put it the way one generally hears it: Is it inevitable that Russia on the one hand and the Anglo-American partnership on the other will arrive at loggerheads?

The world is undergoing a vast change—and the Big Three are the dominant powers. Their unity is the safeguard against another global war which would be catastrophic.

We are going to get an early test of Big Three solidarity. The laboratory is going to be defeated Germany within whose borders the Allied armies of occupation will be stationed. There we shall see combined all the strange factors which will inaugurate a new era for Europe—a Europe far different from anything we have known.

The chief chemists are going to be the Big Three, and they'll be combining substances whose reaction they don't know. There are likely to be explosions.

Does this European metamorphosis, with all its political and economic differences of viewpoint, necessarily lead to another world upheaval?

The signs don't read that way to me. Certainly it's going to require a lot of give and take among the Big Three to maintain balance, but this far there's no unsurmountable obstacle in sight.

Russia is extending her sphere of influence westward on the continent, and probably will do so in the Orient. That's a natural corollary to her emergence from the war as the dominant power of the Eastern hemisphere. The indications also are that Moscow is encouraging the efforts of Communist elements in various countries to establish Soviet governments. However, there

GOERING TO FACE WAR CRIMES TRIAL

LONDON, May 10.—Marshal Hermann Goering will be brought to trial soon, probably before a high tribunal made up of representatives of the Western Allies and Russia, a source close to the United Nations War Crimes commission said today.

This source said Goering's case would fall into the category of those against whom more than one nation has a claim.

SOVIETS SEEK IDENTITY OF 4 BODIES FOUND

Destroyed City Yields Bodies of Goebbels, Other Nazi Chiefs

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG, Jr.,
Representing the Combined American Press

BERLIN, May 10.—At least four bodies, any one of which may be Adolf Hitler's, have been found by the Russians in Berlin. None of them has been identified as being definitely that of the Nazi Fuehrer.

The bodies of Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels and his family; of Martin Bormann, successor to Rudolf Hess as Hitler's deputy; and a number of other top Nazis have been found and identified with fair certainty.

Blackened and Charred

For a week the Russians have searched through the ruins of the underground fortress where Hitler and his gang of last ditch Nazi fanatics held out until the destruction of Berlin was complete. Four bodies, blackened and charred, that seem to answer to Hitler's general appearance have been dragged out of the ruins. They have been measured and photographed for examination by experts. But the Russians are beginning to believe that no body that can be identified without any shadow of doubt as that of Adolf Hitler ever will be found now.

The underground fortress which Hitler made his headquarters in the final mighty battle of Berlin was the huge, supposedly bomb-

MULLINS CUTBACK LEAVES 300 IDLE

Effect of Reconversion Program Is Felt In District Shops

Cutbacks in war production are resulting in the laying off of thousands of district war workers, Joseph E. Smith, area director of the War Manpower Commission, announced today. In Salem, the Mullins Mfg. Corp. has laid off 300 workers and the total has reached 3,146 for the district so far.

Despite the reconversion plans and production slow-downs in some of the district's war plants, workers are still vitally needed in many plants and anyone seeking another job should make application at the local United States Employment Service office at once, Smith said.

In Columbiana the Diamond Welding and Engraving Co. plant laid off 37 workers recently. Largest single cut was at the General Fireproofing Co. plant in Youngstown, where 600 ceased work.

Smith said the Newton Falls Timken Roller Bearing Co. plant laid off 303 yesterday in order to take inventory and begin reconversion. This process is expected to take about a week, he said.

Other plants reporting layoffs included: Atlantic Microphone Mfg. Co., Youngstown, 94 persons; Truscon Steel Co., Youngstown, 240; Mackenzie Muffler Co., Youngstown, 110; Peckard Electric Co., Warren, 125 and the Warren City Mfg. Co., Warren, 100.

PFC. DEAN E. GUY OF LISBON KILLED

LISBON, May 10.—Pfc. Dean Edwin Guy, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guy, W. Chestnut st., was killed in action in Germany April 24, his family was informed by the War department yesterday.

He had previously been listed as missing in action May 5.

A former employee of the McGuffey Coal Co., he was a member of the Christian church. He graduated from Lisbon High school and entered the service in March 1943, going overseas in March the following year.

He was serving with Co. G, 179th Infantry when killed.

Surviving, besides his parents, are three brothers and two sisters.

Arrangements for the celebration will be completed at a meeting of representatives of patriotic organizations Tuesday evening, May 22 in G.A.R. hall.

Kesselring Surprised Hitler Did Not Retreat Into Alps

By HOWARD COWAN

SAALFELD, Germany, May 10.—

Field Marshal Albert Kesselring, the last commander of the German armies in the west, is "most surprised" that Hitler did not lead his Nazis into a planned hold-out in the fortified underground tunnels of the Salzburg-Berchtesgaden area.

Kesselring, found by United States troops aboard his special train in the Tyrolean Alps and awaiting completion of arrangements for his formal surrender, said he is "absolutely certain" Hitler is dead.

"I was most surprised," he told American war correspondents last night, "at the decision of Der Fuehrer at the last moment to fight with his soldiers in Berlin."

It had been known Kesselring was in this area where his predecessor, Field Marshal Karl Rudolf Gerd von Rundstedt, and Reichsmarshal Goering and other prominent Germans were taken prisoner.

Kesselring said he last saw Hitler about the middle of April in Berlin.

Was In Good Health

"He appeared in excellent health," the field marshal added. "It was two or three days before the Russian attack."

"I had an opportunity to speak with the chief of staff of the Sixth army today, and he was at the chancellery until two days before Berlin fell," the field marshal said.

"He said Hitler was dead," Kesselring declared. He did not know how Hitler had died, but said he had "the absolute conviction Der Fuehrer was unwilling to fall into Russian hands alive."

YOUTH, 17, KILLED WHEN CAR UPSETS

Robert L. Griffiths, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffiths of R. D. 1, was killed instantly at midnight when he lost control of a car he was driving and it overturned twice on Route 154, two miles east of Rogers.

State patrolmen who investigated said the youth suffered a fractured skull.

The car was rounding a slight curve on the Rogers-Negley road when the accident occurred, patrolmen said.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed. The body was taken to the VanDyke funeral home in East Palestine.

Point Score Of 85 Adopted To Release Men From Services

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The War department announced today that a point score of 85 has been decided on as the minimum required for discharge of ground, air and service forces enlisted men at this time.

Men with this total will be considered eligible for release and will start moving next week for separation centers.

Separate critical scores for each of the services will be established in about six weeks.

About 1,300,000 men are to be released in the next 12 months under the point system.

The points for each of four factors for discharge are as follows: Service credit—One point for each month of Army service since Sept. 16, 1940. This is the same as 12 points per year. (More than 15 days will be counted as a full month.)

Overseas credit—One point for each month served overseas since Sept. 16, 1940.

Combat credit—Five points for each award of combat decorations since Sept. 16, 1940.

Parenthood credit—12 points for each child under 18 years up to a limit of three children.

Those who attain the required score will be released unless military necessity dictates their retention until replacements can be obtained.

A temporary score of 44 points has been set for members of the Women's Army Corps.

The combat credits are based on awards of the Distinguished Service Cross, Legion of Merit, Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross, Soldiers' medal, Bronze Star, Air Medal, Purple Heart and Bronze service stars (battle participation stars).

Credit also will be given for the following naval decorations to army personnel: Navy Cross, Distinguished Service medal, Legion of Merit, Silver Star medal, Distinguished Flying Cross, Navy and Marine medal, Bronze Star medal and Purple Heart medal.

Officers Release Harder

In addition credit will be given for awards and decorations of a foreign country which may be accepted and worn under War department regulations in effect when this program went into operation.

The department said the method for releasing officers will be "tougher than the plan for enlisted personnel primarily because officers have received additional training, have heavier responsibilities and have developed specialized skills and leadership capacity."

Therefore, the department said, "although officers will have an adjusted service ratings score based on the same multiples as for enlisted personnel, this factor will be secondary to the prime requirement of military necessity."

The department said enlisted men with the highest point totals will become eligible for release from the Army except where considerations of military necessity make it impossible to let them go until qualified replacements can be obtained.

This exception applies particularly to men possessing special skills required in the war against Japan and to men in units that will have to move into the Pacific so swiftly that no opportunity is provided for replacing men with high scores until they reach the new theater."

Because of the special requirements of the war against Japan, the department said, "it is not intended to destroy Germany."

Earlier the Soviet premier issued his 368th—and probably his last—order of the day on the European war. It announced the liberation of Prague, which came four hours after the deadline for cessation of hostilities. Of the Germans still resisting in Czechoslovakia, Stalin said the Red army would "succeed in bringing it to its senses."

Stalin said the Prague Nazis had retreated west and southwest to avoid capture by the Russians, and the Czech radio said bands of Germans were ravaging the countryside.

Remnants of the German 16th and 18th armies, sealed off in the Latvian Courland peninsula, were being corralled by the Soviets who had processed 45,000 by nightfall Wednesday.

HONSHU ONE OF TARGETS; OSHIMA HIT

15,000-Foot High Smoke Columns Rise After Record Attack

BY ROBERT GEIGER

GUAM, May 10.—Japan's dwindling homeland oil supplies were blasted for the first time today by a record fleet of more than 400 B-29s.

Smoke columns rose 15,000 feet from wreckage of oil storage and fuel manufacturing centers on Honshu, main Japanese island, and returning Superfortress crewmen reported results "excellent."

The big bombers also struck at airfields on Shikoku and Kyushu islands, from where Japan sends suicide planes into the battle for Okinawa.

Fulfilling Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz' promise of greater and greater air attacks on Japan, today's formation of sky giants carried a total bomb tonnage equivalent to the maximum loads of more than 1,000 Liberator bombers. The Superfortresses winged more than 3,000 miles to do it.

First on the list of oil areas to be struck were the Tokuyama and Otake fuel storage and manufacturing centers on the inland sea, a major source of supply for the enemy. Bombs were spilled on the Tokuyama naval fueling station and a nearby synthetic fuel factory.

Little Fighter Opposition

Japan's biggest homeland oil storage center on tiny Oshima island, just off the northwest tip of Kyushu, was another top target. Bombs were dropped virtually but with little fighter opposition.

It was a different story when the Superfortresses roared over a Japanese naval force. There, said Second Lieut. Joseph E. Rogers of Wharton, N. J., the sky "turned black with flak."

The big planes disdained the naval force to carry out the devastating blow at the enemy's valuable oil centers.

Returned fliers reported they saw no B-29s go down.

Lieut. Col. Loran D. Briggs of Bountiful, Utah, termed the strike one of the most successful in which he has participated. Eighty Superfortresses were over a target ahead of him, "and when we arrived there was a column of smoke more than 15,000 feet high with scarlet bursts of flames through it," he said.

Crewmen of another plane said billows of smoke towered more than 20,000 feet from the Tokuyama fueling station, and Lieut. James Pratt of Wesleyville, Pa., reported flames leapt upward 2,000 to 3,000 feet.

Even the Japanese Domei news agency admitted the fleet of attacking planes was huge, and reported by broadcast that "approximately 300" Superfortresses had participated.

Japanese fighter pilots were timid, and in one instance, reported by Capt. W. E. Timm (home address not given) seven buzzed near his formation but never attacked.

Metal For Civilian Goods To Be Freed July 1, WPB Says

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The government has decided to open up steel, copper and aluminum supplies to civilian goods manufacturers July 1.

This decision, reported today by officials in a position to know, is scheduled for early announcement by the War Production board.

It was learned also that most of the remaining restrictions on production of consumer "hard goods" such as radios, washing machines and vacuum cleaners, will be lifted shortly. Only those covering such products as automobiles, trucks and stoves will be retained for a time until material supplies are moving more freely.

Even in the case of these items, however, control orders will be amended to permit some production.

How Long For Japan?

Any attempt to estimate how long it will take to finish off Japan, now that her two allies have fallen, must take into consideration the difference in the fanaticism which distinguishes the orientals from the European gangsters.

In Germany, especially, the insane fanaticism started with Hitler and the top Nazis and extended from them down through a certain part, but not all, of the German army. In Japan it is rooted in the rank and file of the soldiers as part of their fanatic devotion to the emperor and their leaders.

Hitler had vowed to carry Germany and all civilization down to destruction if he felt and he tried to carry out this threat when defeat became certain. The Japanese leaders are under no such neurotic obligation.

Defeat of Japan is just as inevitable as the defeat of Germany and if the war continues, destruction in the Japanese home islands will be greater than that visited upon Hitler's reich. It is not unreasonable to believe that Hirohito and his military leaders, realizing the inevitable, may decide to save their land from further devastation by ending a hopeless war.

No one will question the willingness of the Japanese soldier to fight until death but the willingness of the Japanese leaders to wage war to certain devastation is open to question. Our course is to proceed with all vigor to carry out the steps necessary to turn Japan into a pile of bones and ashes while hoping, with fair reason, that the Japanese sense of realism will end a hopeless war before this step, with its toll of American lives, becomes necessary.

To Eat Or Not To Eat

Up in the New England hills a 21-year-old 4-F has been working day and night, with the assistance of one hired man, caring for more than a hundred dairy cows. Besides feeding, milking and generally caring for the cattle, the two men raise most of the feed for them, plus some miscellaneous crops.

The other day the hired man was put by his draft board into 1-A and notified to expect an early call. The young farmer was bitter.

"They say they need food," he said, "but do they? Do they think I can do all this work alone? The day they take John, I shall offer my milk cows for sale. The grass, and any crops already in, I'll plow under in the fall to keep the soil from running down. You can't raise food without manpower."

President Truman had convincing arguments for vetoing the resolution that would have given farm workers an absolute deferment independent of other considerations. The proposal was unsound and undemocratic.

But—you can't raise food without manpower. It's easy for city dwellers who never saw a cow or a pig or a field of corn to forget that unless there are farmers to farm, tenement dwellers can't eat.

This country is not in or approaching any famine condition like that in much of Europe. We haven't suffered for food. We could survive on much less than we now have. Judging by warnings from Judge Rosenman and the President, we are going to do so in the interest of sharing with Europe's sufferers.

We civilians accept that we must make sacrifices; we know that we can't have guns and unrestricted butter. However, many of us feel that the food situation has been permitted to deteriorate much more than has been necessary. We are completely cold to the theory promulgated by some that, because millions in the world are necessarily underfed, we have no right to protest against being unnecessarily deprived of a satisfying diet.

If we couldn't do our international duty and still eat moderately well we could take it. The handling of our food production and allocation is going from bad to worse so fast that we are not at all sure it is necessary.

One of the most urgent tasks confronting President Truman and Congress is to go over the food situation with a fine-tooth comb, find out what is wrong, and do whatever seems necessary. If it appears that more manpower is needed on the farm—or, at least, that we can not do with less—it should not be impossible to find a formula for deferring really useful farm help without going as far as the resolution vetoed by the President would have gone.

Voice of Germany

We are too close to Adolf Hitler's tempestuous career, and we lack too many essential data, to attempt any objective and final appraisal of what made the funny little paper-langer into the most hated figure in world history.

One possible explanation comes to mind, as we think back over the past 15 years. And to the extent that we accept this explanation, it may help us to deal wisely with the Reich so as to avert a World War III.

Let's grant that Hitler had much more intelligence or cunning than we used to suppose. By all means, we can concede his inordinate talent for demagoguery and we do proclaim the profundity of his depravity. With all these, no man could have led an unwilling people into some of the excesses into which the Germans followed or accompanied their Fuehrer.

This suggests that Hitler never was, in fact, the leader of Germany so much as he was the highly articulate voice for the basest instincts of a nation that was, on the whole, willing and anxious to be led into war, atrocities, racial pogroms, anti-religion.

In this theory Hitler could be compared to a firebrand in a mob. Every member is anxious to commit an illegal, immoral act, but for the moment they are restrained by some vestiges of superficial decency, or perhaps by vague fear of the consequences, or even by the mild inertia of habitual docility. The firebrand climbs onto a convenient tree stump, and scariest the mob's passions until decency, caution and inertia vanish. The mob does what it wants to do.

No Hitler could have led or forced Americans, in the mass, to do what the Germans as a people have done with little protest. It does not seem probable that any Hitler could have induced the Germans to do such things if they had possessed any deep-seated tolerance, any genuine love of peace and good will.

Hitler, Himmler, Goering and Goebbels can be taken as symbols of what we know as Nazism. But just as in the beginning they were the tools of ostensibly respectable Junkers and industrialists, so in the end they were the personification of the immorality of a nation that, even now, thinks the worst thing it has done is lose the war.

When we are deciding how to deal with millions of Germans too unimportant and numerous to be tried as war criminals—with millions of Germans who now claim they didn't know what was going on across the road in horror camps—let's remember that Adolf Hitler at his worst probably was only the vile voice of a very dangerous people.

The Stars Say

For Friday, May 11.

JUDGING by a stimulating and challenging chain of planetary influence of major importance, this may be a day in which all phases and aspects of human life might be said to be on the grill. Perplexity, conflict and contradictions, with much of promise and also much to test the sagacity, ingenuity, talents, skill and perspicacity.

There may be a desire for promotion, place, prestige, business and financial influence.

Those whose birthday it is at the threshold of a year which may put to a critical test their many and diversified talents, powers, ingenuity, and skill and, as well, the adaptability to focus such efficiency and acumen on business, industrial, professional, or financial life, or into the realm of the social, cultural, romantic or even spiritual ambitions.

All are under high pressure for achievement and, as well, are stimulated by adverse, peculiar, intriguing and perplexing occurrences or situations. There may be surprises, public and private conflicts although in the long run there is a sign betokening much progress and gratification.

A child born on this day will have a diversity of talents, skills, and powers, which might bring a life of success and happiness.

Little did the Germans realize the fine use that would be made of their super-highways—by the Allies!

Reformers won't be thoroughly satisfied until everything is shut up but their mouths.

Dental Examinations Urged

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WE have long advocated that all persons have regular medical examinations, so that any hidden disorders, that is, conditions which do not produce symptoms, may be discovered and properly treated.

For example, during such examinations infections in the tonsils, sinuses or elsewhere in the body may be discovered and eliminated. Kidney disorders may be detected.

Now it is also important that every six to twelve months at least, a careful study of the condition of the teeth be made. In fact, it is recommended by Dr. Alfred Porter S. Swet of the United States Naval Reserve Dental Corps, that the teeth be X-rayed every six to twelve months after the second or third year of life.

It is not possible for a dentist even by the most careful type of examination, using a mirror and a probe, to locate dental decay in all instances. But with a complete X-ray examination, all harmful and dangerous conditions of the teeth may be quickly discovered.

Preventive Care

When these conditions are corrected, it will do much not only to aid in the prevention of future tooth troubles, but will also be a factor in preventing those disorders which develop in the body because of so-called focal infections.

A focal infection is an infection in one part of the body from which germs or their poisons are carried to other parts of the body, producing damage. Thus decayed teeth may be a factor in preventing those disorders which develop in the body because of so-called focal infections.

There are several types of X-ray examinations which are used in dental examinations. One type, called the periapical, shows the entire tooth including the end of the root.

Another type is known as the extraoral, because when it is taken, the film is held on the outside of the mouth. Such plates are employed when it is necessary to obtain a picture of a larger area than is possible when smaller films are used within the mouth.

The periapical X-rays should be repeated at least every few years, because old conditions may change and new ones occur. A X-ray film made today may be of no use in a few months except for comparison with one which is more recently taken. However, by comparing two series of films, the dentist can determine whether some condition already present has become worse or another disorder developed.

A regular X-ray examination of the teeth can be counted on to pay for itself in the form of better health, less tooth decay and less dental discomfort.

How Long For Japan?

Any attempt to estimate how long it will take to finish off Japan, now that her two allies have fallen, must take into consideration the difference in the fanaticism which distinguishes the orientals from the European gangsters.

In Germany, especially, the insane fanaticism started with Hitler and the top Nazis and extended from them down through a certain part, but not all, of the German army. In Japan it is rooted in the rank and file of the soldiers as part of their fantastic devotion to the emperor and their leaders.

Hitler had vowed to carry Germany and all civilization down to destruction if he fell and he tried to carry out this threat when defeat became certain. The Japanese leaders are under no such neurotic obligation.

Defeat of Japan is just as inevitable as the defeat of Germany and if the war continues, destruction in the Japanese home islands will be greater than that visited upon Hitler's reich. It is not unreasonable to believe that Hirohito and his military leaders, realizing the inevitable, may decide to save their land from further devastation by ending a hopeless war.

No one will question the willingness of the Japanese soldier to fight until death but the willingness of the Japanese leaders to wage war to certain devastation is open to question. Our course is to proceed with all vigor to carry out the steps necessary to turn Japan into a pile of bones and ashes while hoping, with fair reason, that the Japanese sense of realism will end a hopeless war before this step, with its toll of American lives, becomes necessary.

To Eat Or Not To Eat

Up in the New England hills a 21-year-old 4-F has been working day and night, with the assistance of one hired man, caring for more than a hundred dairy cows. Besides feeding, milking and generally caring for the cattle, the two men raise most of the feed for them, plus some miscellaneous crops.

The other day the hired man was put by his draft board into 1-A and notified to expect an early call. The young farmer was bitter.

"They say they need food," he said, "but do they? Do they think I can do all this work alone? The day they take John, I shall offer my milk cows for sale. The grass, and any crops already in, I'll plow under in the fall to keep the soil from running down. You can't raise food without manpower."

President Truman had convincing arguments for vetoing the resolution that would have given farm workers an absolute deferment independent of other considerations. The proposal was unsound and undemocratic.

But—you can't raise food without manpower. It's easy for city dwellers who never saw a cow or a pig or a field of corn to forget that unless there are farmers to farm, tenement dwellers can't eat.

This country is not in or approaching any famine condition like that in much of Europe. We haven't suffered for food. We could survive on much less than we now have. Judging by warnings from Judge Rosenman and the President, we are going to do so in the interest of sharing with Europe's sufferers.

We civilians accept that we must make sacrifices; we know that we can't have guns and unrestricted butter. However, many of us feel that the food situation has been permitted to deteriorate much more than has been necessary. We are completely cold to the theory promulgated by some that, because millions in the world are necessarily underfed, we have no right to protest against being unnecessarily deprived of a satisfying diet.

If we couldn't do our international duty and still eat moderately well we could take it. The handling of our food production and allocation is going from bad to worse so fast that we are not at all sure it is necessary.

One of the most urgent tasks confronting President Truman and Congress is to go over the food situation with a fine-tooth comb, find out what is wrong, and do whatever seems necessary. If it appears that more manpower is needed on the farm—or, at least, that we can not do with less—it should not be impossible to find a formula for deferring really useful farm help without going as far as the resolution vetoed by the President would have gone.

Voice of Germany

We are too close to Adolf Hitler's tempestuous career, and we lack too many essential data, to attempt any objective and final appraisal of what made the funny little paperhanger into the most hated figure in world history.

One possible explanation comes to mind, as we think back over the past 15 years. And to the extent that we accept this explanation, it may help us to deal wisely with the Reich so as to avert a World War III.

Let's grant that Hitler had much more intelligence or cunning than we used to suppose. By all means, we can concede his inordinate talent for demagoguery and we do proclaim the profundity of his depravity. With all these, no man could have led an unwilling people into some of the excesses into which the Germans followed or accompanied their Fuehrer.

This suggests that Hitler never was, in fact, the leader of Germany so much as he was the highly articulate voice for the basest instincts of a nation that was, on the whole, basest and anxious to be led into war, atrocities, racial pogroms, anti-religion.

In this theory Hitler could be compared to a firebrand in a mob. Every member is anxious to commit an illegal, immoral act, but for the moment they are restrained by some vestiges of superficial decency, or perhaps by vague fear of the consequences, or even by the mild inertia of habitual docility. The firebrand climbs onto a convenient tree stump, and scarifies the mob's passions until decency, caution and inertia vanish. The mob does what it wants to do.

No Hitler could have led or forced Americans, in the mass, to do what the Germans as a people have done with little protest. It does not seem probable that any Hitler could have induced the Germans to do such things if they had possessed any deep-seated tolerance, any genuine love of peace and good will.

Hitler, Himmler, Goering and Goebbels can be taken as symbols of what we know as Nazism. But just as in the beginning they were the tools of ostensibly respectable Junkers and industrialists, so in the end they were the personification of the unmorality of a nation that, even now, thinks the worst thing it has done is lose the war.

When we are deciding how to deal with millions of Germans too unimportant and numerous to be tried as war criminals—with millions of Germans who now claim they didn't know what was going on across the road in horror camps—let's remember that Adolf Hitler at his worst probably was only the vile voice of a very dangerous people.

The Stars Say

For Friday, May 11.

JUDGING by a stimulating and challenging chain of planetary influence of major importance, this may be a day in which all phases and aspects of human life might be said to be on the grill. Perplexity, conflict and contradictions, with much of promise and also much to test the sagacity, ingenuity, talents, skill and perspicacity.

There may be a desire for promotion, place, prestige, business and financial influence.

Those whose birthday it is are at the threshold of a year which may put to a critical test their many and diversified talents, powers, ingenuity, and skill and, as well, the adaptability to focus such efficiency and acumen on business, industrial, professional, or financial life, or into the realm of the social, cultural, romantic or even spiritual ambitions.

All are under high pressure for achievement and, as well, are stimulated by adverse, peculiar, intriguing and perplexing occurrences or situations. There may be surprises, public and private conflicts although in the long run there is a sign betokening much progress and gratification.

A child born on this day will have a diversity of talents, skills, and powers, which might bring a life of success and happiness.

Little did the Germans realize the fine use that would be made of their super-highways—by the Allies!

Reformers won't be thoroughly satisfied until everything is shut up but their mouths.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Dental Examinations Urged

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WE have long advocated that all persons have regular medical examinations, so that any hidden disorders, that is, conditions which do not produce symptoms, may be discovered and properly treated.

For example, during such examinations infections in the tonsils, sinuses or elsewhere in the body may be discovered and eliminated. Kidney disorders may be detected.

Now it is also important that every six to twelve months at least, a careful study of the condition of the teeth be made. In fact, it is recommended by Dr. Alfred Porter S. Sweet of the United States Naval Reserve Dental Corps, that the teeth be X-rayed every six to twelve months after the second or third year of life.

It is not possible for a dentist even by the most careful type of examination, using a mirror and a probe, to locate dental decay in all instances. But with a complete X-ray examination, all harmful and dangerous conditions of the teeth may be quickly discovered.

Preventive Care

When these conditions are corrected, it will do much not only to aid in the prevention of future tooth troubles but will also be a factor in preventing those disorders which develop in the body because of so-called focal infections.

A focal infection is an infection in one part of the body from which germs or their poisons are carried to other parts of the body, producing damage. Thus decayed teeth may be a factor in preventing those disorders which develop in the body because of so-called focal infections.

A focal infection is an infection in one part of the body from which germs or their poisons are carried to other parts of the body, producing damage. Thus decayed teeth may be a factor in conditions leading to kidney disease or heart damage.

SO THEY SAY

Success of this proposed organization will depend on the integrity of the major powers for the first 10 years or so. This thing is so logical it should have happened 10,000 years ago.

—Sgt. John B. Thompson of Minneapolis, on Commander Stassen's staff at San Francisco.

If the way is left open for American brains and ingenuity to exercise themselves, we believe they'll outdistance any foreign (air) competition. If the British set up a monopoly our people will be able to lick 'em hands down.

—Alvin D. Barber, U. S. C. of C. official.

This is a prime example of your wanted German culture. You say you are not responsible, but you supported the regime that committed such crimes.

—Col. Edward P. Seiler of Lowell, Ky., to civilians viewing Landsberg atrocities.

Our scrupulous adherence to the Geneva Treaty has been the foundation of what the Red Cross has been able to do for our prisoners in Germany.

—Maurice Pate, Red Cross supply director for U. S. in Europe.

A SONG to REMEMBER

by Willard Wiener

THE STORY: At the age of 10, Frederic Chopin's dexterity at the piano has already made him a person of note in the little Polish village of Zelazowa Wola. Count Skarbek, owner of the village, has requested that he play in a public concert at Warsaw. Professor Elsner, Frederic's teacher, and the whole Chopin family are looking forward to the event.

II THE LETTER
PROF. JOSEF ELSNER, his baggy clothes dripping wet, stepped over the threshold. If Mamma Chopin had not held him off he would have embraced her in his rain-soaked arms.
 "Good day!" His face was one of smiles. "Madame Chopin, good day!" Then he nodded to Monsieur Chopin, who had only this moment come to the door. "Nicolas! Izabela, good day! Your sister's little ones, are they in health?" Izabela, who was in Warsaw, said:

"Yes, they are." Izabela said. "Jozef Elsner closed his lips, nodded then with a quick gesture, as Nicolas Chopin bolted the door against the driving rain, he said: 'What a pupil!' His head nodded in the direction of Fritzen's music room. 'Superb! Yes?'"

Nicolas Chopin didn't say anything but his expression said plainly enough: "Who thinks of music on a day like this?"

The Professor smacked his lips. His cheeks were wet, the rain water dripping even from his eye-

The Home Front At A Glance
 (By Associated Press)
 WASHINGTON, May 10.—Here is the home front at a glance, as summarized from War Mobilization Director Fred M. Vinson's report on "The War—Phase Two."

Midnight curfew—Abolished, effective immediately.
 Horse and dog racing—Can be resumed at once.
 Food—Ten per cent less than last year. Rationing to continue.

Gasoline—A-card drivers probably will get more soon.
 Travel—Transportation continues tight. Convention restrictions stand. Reconversion—Some will start immediately. Some controls to be relaxed at once. Full reconversion must await Japan's defeat.

Economic controls—Price, wage, tax controls stand.
 Automobiles—A few to six months. Household goods—Moderate manufacture of washing machines and refrigerators immediately. More electric irons, stoves in three to six months.

Taxes—Present high rates continue.
 Unemployment—Some 1,500,000 may lose jobs in next year, in most cases temporarily.
 Draft Calls Continue—Manpower—Strict controls continue. Forty-eight hour week—Continues in war plants. Dropped gradually elsewhere.

Draft—Calls will continue large. Women's services—Recruiting will continue. Merchant fleet—Need for seamen and officers continues. War production—Six months hence, rate will still equal to that of 1943.

Small business—Where possible will get chance to reconvert. War bonds—Undiminished purchases must continue. Clothing—Low-cost items should be more plentiful soon. General scarcity will continue.

Building—Between 250,000 and 400,000 new homes in next year. Wages—Controls will continue, including Little Steel formula. Salvage—Fats, paper and tin can saving must continue.

Opposes Own Wage Boost
 BOSTON—One of the few men who doesn't want a salary increase is Boston police commissioner, Thomas F. Sullivan. He told a legislative committee that he opposed a bill which would raise his salary from $8,000 to $12,000 a year. He said it would be poor taste to accept a raise because of the poor salaries of his subordinates.

concert hall, the greatest publishing house in Paris?"

"Is it Louis Pleyel?" asked Nicolas Chopin calmly.
 "Who else? It is something, let me tell you, to get a letter from Louis Pleyel. Is it a cold letter? Look! How is it signed? It is signed, as you see, Respectfully Henry Dupont, secretary to Louis Pleyel. Ah, don't laugh, don't smile. Who is Elsner in far-off Warsaw that Louis Pleyel should have his own personal secretary write respectfully to him from Paris? The letter is still warm! It came in the early post. It reaches over the years, proof, my friends—absolute proof—that a sincere man is always a sincere man. It brings back to my head an occasion in Germany 15 years ago. I was playing then in a trio, and who is in the audience but Louis Pleyel. There he was, afterwards, waiting. He took my hand, a powerful man, Louis Pleyel. My dear friend," he said, "you were magnificent!" So I am naturally pleased, as who wouldn't be. But did it stop there? Oh, no! That was only the beginning. He said also, on that same occasion, 'Elsner, he said, 'I shall never forget you! How do you like that?'"

Mamma Chopin said coldly: "You wrote to him about Pritchen?" Elsner's eyes lighted. "Did you think I would be afraid to do that? Not Jozef Elsner. Yes, indeed, I sat myself down and wrote a warm letter to my good friend Louis Pleyel. Well, you see what he says. It is all there."

He now had the letter and was holding it to his eyes. He read it aloud, although undoubtedly he could have repeated every word without the slightest reference to it. (To Be Continued)

The Hoskins are a One-Family USO
 Saturday night is open house for service men at Dad and Ma Hoskins'. They spread out sliced turkey and chicken, hotbreads and cake, sweet cider and ice-cold beer—and let any service man who wants to, come and help himself.
 Some townsfolk thought the fellows might get obstreperous or take advantage of the Hoskins' hospitality. But the men are quick to recognize that here's a real American home, where friendliness and moderation are just naturally observed.

War Plants Feel Sting of Cutbacks
 YOUNGSTOWN, May 10.—Cutbacks are hitting Youngstown district war plants. A firm in Warren is reported to have received cancellation of a $20,000,000 order. The firm immediately began laying off most of its 2,500 employees.

Several other district firms are said to have dropped 1,500 workers in recent weeks because of cutbacks due to military conditions in Europe.

Other cutbacks are expected in district plants, including Ravenna Ordnance plant where manufacture of large caliber ammunition probably will be curtailed sharply. Lighter ammunition is used in the Pacific, plant officials say.

Major steel plants here have not yet been affected, but are expecting orders to cutback certain types of ammunition steel, executives say.

Dr. Joseph E. Smith, area war manpower director, says all who have been laid off war jobs so far can be absorbed by other plants still doing must work.

Dr. and Mrs. Sheehan will leave Sunday for Santa Monica, Calif., for an indefinite stay with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheehan.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Annual Poppy Day

The American Legion auxiliary has purchased 5,000 poppies for Poppy day, May 26, it was announced today. Mrs. Charles Kennedy, chairman, is in charge. The flowers will be sold by junior auxiliary members and Girl Scouts. The money from the sale goes for rehabilitation and child welfare work.

At the auxiliary meeting Tuesday evening the members made 100 poppy wreaths which will be placed on the graves of veterans of World wars I and II in Grandview and Hope cemeteries.

The members attended the V-E day service in the High school auditorium before their meeting.

There were three guests, Mrs. Lester Freck of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. E. A. Hadley and Mrs. Lloyd Hannay of Lisbon.

Mrs. Arnold Greene, 10th district president, will be a guest of the Salem unit on June 12 at a dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. C. C. Miller, Damascus rd. Mrs. Miller is chairman and the committee includes Mrs. James M. Helm and Mrs. H. S. Wykoff.

Ann Kicks- Bride-Elect, Honored At Party

Honoring Miss Ann Kicks, bride-elect of Machinist Mate Third Class Michael Yanek, who is stationed in Chicago, a party was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Thomas, Perry st. It was featured with a shower of gifts for the honoree.

Games provided entertainment and prizes went to Miss Bernice Weikart, Mrs. Stephen Bartha and Miss Margaret Minarick.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Helen Kicks.

Mrs. Zimmerman Hostess To Club Members

Mrs. R. J. Zimmerman of the Washingtonville rd. entertained members of the Lend-a-Hand club at a luncheon Wednesday at her home. There was a centerpiece of spring flowers in pastel shades and covers were arranged for 12. Contests were enjoyed.

Guests included Mrs. Edward Shepherd of Millville, Mrs. Russell Smith and Mrs. Maurice Wisler of Washingtonville and Mrs. Glenn Hawkins of Columbiana.

A children's program will feature the June meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Yocus, R. D. 5, Salem.

Jeanne Warner Feted At Shower Party

Miss Jeanne Warner, whose marriage to Machinist Mate Second Class Paul A. Meier of Chicago, will be an event of June 16, was honored at a party given recently by her mother, Mrs. R. E. Warner of Homewood ave.

The bride-elect was showered with gifts for her new home. Bingo was a favored diversion and prizes were won by Mrs. George Barnes, Mrs. John Theiss and Mrs. Joseph Meier. Lunch was served by Mrs. Warner.

Missionary Group To Meet Friday

Miss Hilda Franke will be in charge of the topic, "The Rural Pastor at Work," at a meeting of the Alice Dennis Missionary society of Holy Trinity Lutheran church at 7:30 p. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Martin Thomas, 165 W. 14th st.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Scott were in Cleveland last night to meet their daughter, Mrs. V. H. Hakes, who for the past six weeks has been with her husband, Lieut. Hakes in New Orleans. La. Mrs. Hakes and two children, Robert and Victoria, will make their home with her parents.

Miss Jessie Scott of Cleveland is spending the day with her brother and family.

Mrs. W. P. Carpenter of S. Lincoln ave. returned Wednesday from Bethel, Conn., where she was the guest of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Carpenter. She also visited in New York City.

Hostess At Party

Employees of the Schwartz store composed the guest list at an enjoyable dinner party given by Mrs. James Lepper Wednesday evening at her home on E. Fourth st. Places were arranged for 18 guests. The evening was spent informally.

Mrs. J. E. Bowers and children, Barbara and Theodore, have returned to their home in Hubbard after spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bowers, Sr., Beaver Creek-Greenford rd. Corp. J. E. Bowers is with the armed forces overseas.

Mrs. Clarence Cosand of Damascus was in Salem Wednesday afternoon to visit her brother-in-law, Linton Cosand, who is ill at the Central Clinic.

Mrs. Frank Middaugh of Caledonia, O., was in Salem Wednesday afternoon enroute to Columbiana to visit her aunt, Mrs. Robert Karicher.

Mrs. Ella McCartney of the Damascus rd., who has been ill, is reported to be improving. Her sister, Mrs. Olive Ward of Lisbon, concluded a two weeks' stay with her Wednesday afternoon. Another sister, Mrs. Grace Newhouse of Columbiana, spent Tuesday night and Wednesday with her.

Cadet Nurse Donna Rice of Portsmouth, Va., is spending a 14-day leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rice, of S. Broadway. Miss Rice has with her a guest, Cadet Nurse Doris Word of Portsmouth. From Salem Miss Rice will go to Richmond, Va., where she will take a three months' course at the Medical college.

Columbiana, Salineville Primaries Are Eliminated

The county board of elections today assured 30 Republican and Democratic candidates for Columbiana and Salineville offices Nov. 6 ballot places without a primary election July 31.

Certificates of nomination were ordered issued after primaries in the two villages were eliminated under the so-called "no contest" law which provides a primary election shall not be held if the number of candidates who filed declarations does not exceed the number of nominations to be made.

Republicans and Democrats filed complete but unopposed tickets in Columbiana, while only three Republicans and three Democrats qualified for ballot places in Salineville.

Salineville Man Wounded

LISBON, May 10—Pfc. Archie H. Hodge, 26, infantryman husband of Doris Hodge of Salineville, was shot by a sniper April 18 in Germany, the War department announced Wednesday.

Plant Worker Killed

LIMA, May 10—Grover C. Swisher, 55, was killed yesterday in the Lima Locomotive, Inc., plant when a 500-pound crane block fell on him.

Now She Shops "Cash and Carry"

Without Painful Backache

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Enjoy Party At Dinner Of Navy Mothers

Eighty mothers and guests attended the Mother-Daughter party given by the Navy Mothers club Wednesday evening in the Memorial building.

A cafeteria dinner featured the event which was in charge of Mrs. L. B. Field. Miss Betty Cibula arranged the program of entertainment which was presented by Salem High school students.

The next meeting of the club will be on Wednesday evening, June 13. The members meet every Tuesday in the Memorial building to sew.

Programs Are Enjoyed By Methodist Groups

Groups of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church which met Wednesday afternoon include:

Group 1 at the home of Mrs. G. E. Byers on E. State st., with 15 members in attendance. Mrs. L. P. Koenreich had the devotions.

Mrs. E. E. Dyball and Mrs. Frank Stouder contributed piano duets. Mrs. Stouder, district secretary of missionary personnel and education, gave a talk. Refreshments were served.

Group 3 at the home of Mrs. G. G. Ward, S. Lincoln ave., with 12 members present. Mrs. Gladys Green led devotions. Mrs. L. B. Biehler, who was in charge of the program, read articles on "Missions in the South Pacific." Lunch was served by the hostess.

The group's quarterly birthday dinner will be held June 13 at the church.

Group 5 at the home of Mrs. A. B. Combs on Superior st. Mrs. George Kleinkurt used St. John 19 for her devotional reading.

Plans were made for the semi-annual birthday dinner June 13 at the church.

Mrs. Ross Helman and Mrs. A. C. Klotzly assisted Mrs. Combs in serving lunch.

Presbyterial Reports Given At Meeting

Miss Emma Hoopes, Mrs. Thomas Mercer and Mrs. H. C. Snyder gave interesting reports of the meeting of the Presbyterial held at Niles in April when the Women's missionary society of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon at the church.

Miss Hoopes, who is president of the society, had charge of the call to worship.

Miss Bessie Cook told of the work of Dr. Ignacio Rosa, national missionary in Cardenas, Cuba. Miss Ora Vincent offered a vocal solo, "God Bless Our Boys," and played her own accompaniment.

Miss Vogelhuber Enters Saxon Beauty Contest

Miss Mary Vogelhuber will represent the Junior Saxon club in a beauty queen contest Sunday, May 26, in Canton. She was selected at a meeting of the club Wednesday evening at the Saxon hall.

Officers elected include: President, Miss Mary Ratscher; vice president, Miss Minnie Schuster; secretary, Miss Mary Lutzsch; treasurer, Miss Mary Vogelhuber; reporter, Miss Dorothy Kettel; trustees, Mrs. Elsie Gross, Walter Weber and Albert Kinn.

At Cleveland Party

Br. and Mrs. G. R. Deming and Miss Helen B. Deming of S. Lincoln ave. were among the guests at a party recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pabody in Cleveland, which was a farewell courtesy to Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Sheehan of Asheville, N. C., formerly of Salem. Dr. and Mrs. Sheehan will leave Sunday for Santa Monica, Calif., for an indefinite stay with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheehan.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Annual Poppy Day

The American Legion auxiliary has purchased 5,000 poppies for Poppy day, May 26. It was announced today. Mrs. Charles Kennedy, chairman, is in charge. The flowers will be sold by junior auxiliary members and Girl Scouts. The money from the sale goes for rehabilitation and child welfare work.

At the auxiliary meeting Tuesday evening the members made 100 poppy wreaths which will be placed on the graves of veterans of World wars I and II in Grandview and Hope cemeteries.

The members attended the V-E day service in the high school auditorium before their meeting.

There were three guests, Mrs. Lester Freck of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. E. A. Hadley and Mrs. Lloyd Hannay of Lisbon.

Mrs. Arnold Greene, 10th district president, will be a guest of the Salem unit on June 12 at a dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. C. C. Miller, Damascus rd. Mrs. Miller is chairman and the committee includes Mrs. James M. Helm and Mrs. H. S. Wykoff.

Ann Kiecko-Bride-Elect, Honored At Party

Honoring Miss Ann Kiecko, bride-elect of Machinist Mate Third Class Michael Yarek, who is stationed in Chicago, a party was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Thomas, Perry st. It was featured with a shower of gifts for the honoree.

Games provided entertainment and prizes went to Miss Bernice Weikart, Mrs. Stephen Bartha and Miss Margaret Milnarick.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Helen Kiecko.

Mrs. Zimmerman Hostess To Club Members

Mrs. R. J. Zimmerman of the Washingtonville rd. entertained members of the Lend-a-Hand club at a luncheon Wednesday at her home. There was a centerpiece of spring flowers in pastel shades and covers were arranged for 12. Contests were enjoyed.

Guests included Mrs. Edward Shepherd of Millville, Mrs. Russell Smith and Mrs. Maurice Wisler of Washingtonville and Mrs. Glenn Hawkins of Columbiana.

A children's program will feature the June meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Yocus, R. D. 5, Salem.

Jeanne Warner Feted At Shower Party

Miss Jeanne Warner, whose marriage to Machinist Mate Second Class Paul A. Meier of Chicago, will be an event of June 16, was honored at a party given recently by her mother, Mrs. R. E. Warner of Homewood ave.

The bride-elect was showered with gifts for her new home. Bingo was a favored diversion and prizes were won by Mrs. George Barnes, Mrs. John Theiss and Mrs. Joseph Meier. Lunch was served by Mrs. Warner.

Missionary Group To Meet Friday

Miss Hilda Franke will be in charge of the topic, "The Rural Pastor at Work," at a meeting of the Alice Dennis Missionary society of Holy Trinity Lutheran church at 7:30 p. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Martin Thomas, 165 W. 14th st.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Scott were in Cleveland last night to meet their daughter, Mrs. V. H. Hakes, who for the past six weeks has been with her husband, Lieut. Hakes in New Orleans. La. Mrs. Hakes and two children, Robert and Victoria, will make their home with her parents.

Miss Jessie Scott of Cleveland is spending the day with her brother and family.

Mrs. W. P. Carpenter of S. Lincoln ave. returned Wednesday from Bethel, Conn., where she was the guest of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Carpenter. She also visited in New York City.

Marriage Licenses

Richard C. Roach, East Liverpool, millworker, and Marjorie Timmons, East Liverpool.

Carl E. Dutch, New Waterford, truck driver, and Winifred N. Funkhouser, New Waterford.

Philip B. Horn, R. D. 1, Salem, and Grace Jerne, Salem.

Hostess At Party

Employees of the Schwartz store composed the guest list at an enjoyable dinner party given by Mrs. James Lepper Wednesday evening at her home on E. Fourth st. Places were arranged for 18 guests. The evening was spent informally.

Mrs. J. E. Bowers and children, Barbara and Theodore, have returned to their home in Hubbard after spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bowers, Sr., Beaver Creek-Greenford rd. Corp. J. E. Bowers is with the armed forces overseas.

Mrs. Clarence Cosand of Damascus was in Salem Wednesday afternoon to visit her brother-in-law, Linton Cosand, who is ill at the Central Clinic.

Mrs. Frank Middaugh of Caledonia, O., was in Salem Wednesday afternoon enroute to Columbiana to visit her aunt, Mrs. Robert Karcher.

Mrs. Ella McCartney of the Damascus rd. who has been ill, is reported to be improving. Her sister, Mrs. Olive Ward of Lisbon, concluded a two weeks' stay with her Wednesday afternoon. Another sister, Mrs. Grace Newhouse of Columbiana, spent Tuesday night and Wednesday with her.

Cadet Nurse Donna Rice of Portsmouth, Va., is spending a 14-day leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rice, of S. Broadway. Miss Rice has with her a guest, Cadet Nurse Doris Word of Portsmouth. From Salem Miss Rice will go to Richmond, Va., where she will take a three months' course at the Medical college.

Columbiana, Salineville Primaries Are Eliminated

The county board of elections today assured 30 Republican and Democratic candidates for Columbiana and Salineville offices Nov. 6 ballot places without a primary election July 31.

Certificates of nomination were ordered issued after primaries in the two villages were eliminated under the so-called "no contest" law which provides a primary election shall not be held if the number of candidates who filed declarations does not exceed the number of nominations to be made.

Republicans and Democrats filed complete but unopposed tickets in Columbiana, while only three Republicans and three Democrats qualified for ballot places in Salineville.

Security Benefits For First Quarter Show Slight Raise

An increase of approximately seven per cent in the number of monthly social security benefits is revealed in figures released today by the first quarter of 1945 by John H. Pittenger, manager of the Youngstown district office of the Social Security board.

The figures show that a total of 11,197.00 is being paid monthly to approximately 5748 beneficiaries in the area served by the Youngstown office, which covers Mahoning, Jefferson and Columbiana counties.

Approximately 40 per cent of all persons in this area who are now receiving monthly checks under the Social Security act are retired workers. The remainder of the beneficiaries includes widows over 65 of insured workers who have died, other widows — of any age — with children under 18, these widows, and in certain cases aged parents of deceased workers.

In Columbiana County the number of people who are receiving monthly insurance benefits is 1,444, and the total of the monthly Social Security payments is shown in the following table:

Type of Ben'ty.	Total Num.	Monthly Payments
Retired workers	775	$14,453.52
Widows over 65	199	2,592.30
Widows over 65	101	2,080.50
Widows with children	147	2,889.23
Children	426	4,329.87
Aged Dep't parts	4	57.03

In addition to these monthly benefit figures, $31,645.08 was paid in lump-sum payments during the quarter to 289 persons in cases where monthly benefits did not apply.

ARMY WILL INVADE CHINA COAST NEXT

WASHINGTON, May 10. — The Army intends to land on the China coast.

This was confirmed officially by Gen. Brison Somervell at a news conference in discussing the scarcity of qualified civilians in the Pacific to unload supplies for the war against Japan. This is the way Somervell phrased it:

"Although some help is available in the Philippines and can be expected along the coast of China, soldiers will have to be used to handle the large proportion of the thousands of tons of cargo unloaded daily."

Tomato Plants Set Out After Long Air Jaunt

BOWLING GREEN, May 10. — Tomato plants—165,000 of them—which grew yesterday in Georgia soil will be set out today in fields near here.

The plants were flown to Ohio yesterday in an "emergency experiment." The trip took four hours instead of the customary two and a half day express train time.

The plane landed about 5 p. m. and the plants were placed in a hot house here for the night.

A. G. Young, purchase agent for the H. J. Heinz Co., which had the plants transported by air, said the experiment provided an earlier planting date, reduced plant costs to farmers and reduced crop damage due to weather.

The experiment was decided upon when south Georgia growers reported hot weather and rain had forced growth of the plants ahead of schedule.

An increase of approximately seven per cent in the number of monthly social security benefits is revealed in figures released today for the first quarter of 1945 by Glenn H. Pittenger, manager of the Youngstown district office of the Social Security board.

The figures show that a total of $11,197.00 is being paid monthly to approximately 5748 beneficiaries in the area served by the Youngstown office, which covers Mahoning, Jefferson and Columbiana counties.

Approximately 40 per cent of all persons in this area who are now receiving monthly checks under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance provisions of the Social Security act are retired workers. The remainder of the beneficiaries includes widows over 65—of insured workers who have died, other widows—of any age—with children under 18, these children, and in certain cases aged parents of deceased workers.

In Columbiana County the number of people who are receiving monthly insurance benefits is 1,400, and the total of the monthly Social Security payments are shown in the following tabulation:

Type of Ben'ty.	Total Num.	Monthly Payments
Retired workers	875	$14,453.52
Widows over 65	199	2,592.30
Widows over 65	101	2,080.50
Widows with children	147	2,889.23
Children	426	4,329.87
Aged Dep't parts	4	57.03

In addition to these monthly benefit figures, $31,645.08 was paid in lump-sum payments during the quarter to 289 persons in cases where monthly benefits did not apply.

ARMY WILL INVADE CHINA COAST NEXT

WASHINGTON, May 10. — The Army intends to land on the China coast.

This was confirmed officially by Gen. Brehon Somervell at a news conference in discussing the scarcity of qualified civilians in the Pacific to unload supplies for the war against Japan. This is the way Somervell phrased it.

"Although some help is available in the Philippines and can be expected along the coast of China, soldiers will have to be used to handle the large proportion of the thousands of tons of cargo unloaded daily."

With District Men In The Service

Edward A. Birkhimer of Salem, recently was advanced to gunner's mate, third class, aboard a U. S. aircraft carrier in the Pacific.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo E. Birkhimer of 579 W. State st. he attended Salem High school before joining the Navy early in 1943 and was a grinder for Salem China Co. He has participated in task force strikes against the Marshalls, Truk, Palau, Ioromosa and the Philippines, and saw action in the battle for Leyte gulf.

Charles Leroy Sell, MM third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Sell of 491 Woodland ave., has been transferred from the Atlantic to the Pacific theater.

He is aboard the Charles F. Hughes, D. D. 428, which has an enviable record in the Atlantic and Mediterranean. Built before Pearl Harbor, she is the only destroyer to fly the homebound pennant up the East river in New York. They must remain out of home port for over a year for this privilege.

Boarding ship just before Christmas, 1943, they left New York Jan. 1, 1944, and arrived in the Mediterranean where they remained until Dec. 20, 1944, arriving in New York Jan. 12.

The Hughes supported the army at Anzio, shelling and bombarding German positions.

On the right flank of the invasion of Southern France they were in the thick of countering the attacks of German navy units based at Genoa and La Spezia, Italy. While on patrol one night they were attacked by three E-boats which they sunk in a five-hour battle. For this action the ship received the Silver Star.

His address is: Charles Leroy Sell, MM 3/c, U. S. S. Charles F. Hughes, care PPO, San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. Ida Nicora, Franklin st. has received word that her son, Staff Sgt. Mike Nicora, Jr., has been promoted to technical sergeant in the Philippines. His new address is: T/S Mike Nicora, Jr., 15329100, 345th Bomber Group, 498 Bomber sqd., APO 74, care postmaster, Calif. He is with a B-25 Medium bomber crew as a radio operator.

S/M Second Class Harold E. John has returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after spending a 10-day leave with his wife, Ruth, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milan John, R. D. 3, Salem. His address is: Harold E. John, S. M. 2/c, 4414-37640, Brks. B-6, Comp. D-1, U. S. M. S. Sheephead Bay, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Ruth Alice Snyder of Stewart rd. has received this address for her husband: Apprentice Seaman Charles P. Snyder, 950-48-19, U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rhodes, R. D. 4, Salem, have this new address for their son: Eugene Rhodes, Cox 24th U. S. N., Const. Batt., Co. C-4, care fleet postoffice, San Francisco, Calif.

Tomato Plants Set Out After Long Air Jaunt

BOWLING GREEN, May 10. — Tomato plants—165,000 of them—which grew yesterday in Georgia soil will be set out today in fields near here.

The plants were flown to Ohio yesterday in an "emergency experiment." The trip took four hours instead of the customary two and a half day express train time.

The plane landed about 5 p. m. and the plants were placed in a hot house here for the night.

A. G. Young, purchase agent for the H. J. Heinz Co., which had the plants transported by air, said the experiment provided an earlier planting date, reduced plant costs to farmers and reduced crop damage due to weather.

The experiment was decided upon when south Georgia growers reported hot weather and rain had forced growth of the plants ahead of schedule.

MOSCOW

Marshal Tito's forces said the Partisans were advancing toward Austria against disconnected groups of resisting Germans.

Germans vs. Germans
The German high command in its last communique said all German arms had ceased firing under Admiral Keri Doenitz' order.

German troops were sent to clear the woods at Segeberg, 25 miles north of Hamburg, where 300 Nazi fanatics were holding out.

Nazi troops yesterday filed out of the Atlantic port garrisons at La Rochelle, St. Nazaire and Lorient, nests of the once dreaded U-boats. The Germans had between 200 and 300 operational submarines when they surrendered. Some may be used against Japan.

At Allied headquarters it was disclosed Stalin had sought unsuccessfully to delay the victory announcement of Tuesday. Allied headquarters treated the Berlin signing as a ratification, but apparently Moscow regarded the Berlin act as the actual surrender.

Censorship Continues

WASHINGTON, May 10.—News censorship will continue under relaxed restrictions resulting from the end of the European war. Censorship Director Byron Price announced last night.

Basic military information still is subject to authorization by competent authorities.

POINT SCORE

the strength of the Army Service Forces and Air Forces will be reduced much less than the strength of ground forces.

"As a result," the initial rate of release will be more rapid among ground troops than among those assigned to Air Forces or Service Forces," the department said.

When soldiers who are surplus overseas arrive in this country they will proceed to one of the 22 reception stations. There soldiers having the required scores will be screened once more to determine whether they are essential.

Those found non-essential will be transferred immediately to a separation center for processing prior to release.

This processing will take only about 48 hours, after which the soldier will be on his way home as a civilian.

The War department said its demobilization plan will not affect the continued release of enlisted men over 42 years of age. Holders of the Medal of Honor also are eligible for release upon request.

Married members of the WAC will be released at their own request if their army husbands have been returned to civilian life.

Induction Rate Unchanged

Maj. Gen. William J. Tompkins, director of the Special Planning division of the War department's special staff, led a group of high-ranking officials in explaining the demobilization plan to a news conference. Tompkins said there are a number of soldiers already in the country who returned for rest and who have high scores. They will be eligible for discharge "right away," he said.

The Army previously had explained that in addition to the 1,300,000 men expected to be eligible for discharge under the demobilization program the normal attrition rate (discharge for physical reasons and other factors) will bring the total for the next 12 months up to approximately 2,000,000.

The department said it plans to increase the 1,300,000 figure by keeping Selective Service calls at the present level which was fixed on a replacement basis.

Tompkins said the Army is "still going to call on the 18-year-old group to the maximum that can be furnished" and he added he was certain that draft boards will continue to take some men over 30.

Tompkins said he did not think it possible at present to make any change in the policy of drafting fathers.

HITLER

proof air-raid shelter underneath the new Reich chancellery.

It has been linked by deep underground passes with shelters under the nearby Wilhelmplatz, the great air ministry building 500 yards away in the Leipzigerstrasse, and the high command building in the Bendlerstrasse on the Leutow Ufer, about a mile distant. There were other big underground shelters under the Tiergarten park. The whole was linked together by passages to form a great subterranean fortress.

Definite Evidence Lost

It was not until the whole of Berlin had been brought crashing in a mass of ruins and until the underground fortress had been burned out yard-by-yard by Soviet flame-throwers that the last great stronghold of Nazidom fell.

Somewhere amid this underground labyrinth of ruins, his body charred beyond real recognition by flamethrowers, Adolf Hitler probably met his death. The Russians believe he might have been killed beforehand by the people around him. But the flames that finally swept through the subterranean passages probably destroyed forever any definite evidence of how the Nazi leader was wiped out.

opportunity to conclude peace with Great Britain and America at any time. We are similar races—the Nordic type—and it is senseless to beat one another to death."

Kesseling was asked if he thought the German army could have fought better without Hitler's "intuitive" leadership.

"To give justice to Der Fuehrer," he said, "I must say he was a genius in operations sense and conception. Sometimes, however, the ideas of genius are misunderstood. I only regret that Der Fuehrer had to direct Germany's military, political and economic life. He was overtaxed by the weight of his burdens."

Respects Allied Chiefs

Discussing the war in general, Kesseling singled out Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, Gen. George S. Patton and Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder among the Allied commanders who had won his respect and admiration.

Kesseling recalled a statement by Montgomery that whoever had the superior air force would win the war.

"As an old Luftwaffe soldier, I cannot deny the truth of those words," he said. "Dive bombings and terror attacks on civilians and heavy bombardment were our undoing."

He asserted the Germans "never did entertain the idea of using gas."

"We are not as bad as you believe us to be," the marshal added. He followed up with these assertions:

"It is impossible that the Germans dressed in American uniforms in the Ardennes offensive. There are unwritten laws we all observe."

"I have seen an extreme increase in the ability of American and English soldiers in combat. We have always spoken of our aggressors with the greatest esteem. We are not content with the customs of New Zealanders, but every people have their customs."

"With enough German soldiers in it—yes, we could have held the Siegfried line. But in six years their quality and number declined."

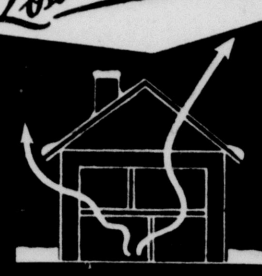

"I don't know why we didn't invade England after Dunkerque. We should have done it."

"Soldier to soldier, I can only say that on the other side leadership has been very skillful and adaptable to all events."

The War Today

By DeWitt MacKenzie

is no sign so far as I can see that Russia is bent on territorial expansion as such, although she does intend to insure friendly buffer states on her frontiers.

It strikes me that the basic difficulty among the Big Three lies in suspicions of one another—fears of something which might happen, but might not happen. That probably is mainly due to lack of acquaintance. It may disappear as Russia emerges so that we can see more of her—and so she can see more of us.

For a generation Russia has been living within herself and has become a stranger. But the attitude of the Russian people seems to be friendly enough when they turn out and shout "long live the great American people!"

I think we are justified in believing that trouble with Russia is not inevitable.

27 MINERS KILLED IN BLAST IN UTAH

SUNNYSIDE, Utah, May 10.—Twenty-one miners were killed when a roaring explosion sprayed flames and gas through the Utah Fuel company's No. 1 mine in this central Utah coal digging center.

Two others were missing and believed dead. Seven injured were taken to hospitals. Three escaped injury.

Deadly fumes which spread all through the mine following the explosion three miles underground hampered rescue operations.

The explosion partially blocked the shaft, forcing rescue workers to dig away debris before they could search for the bodies.

Survivors attributed the blast to "black damp," a miner's term for accumulated fine coal dust which explodes upon coming in contact with an electric spark.

Induction Rate Unchanged

Major Gen. William J. Tompkins, director of the Special Planning division of the War department's special staff, led a group of high-ranking officials in explaining the demobilization plan to a news conference. Tompkins said there are a number of soldiers already in the country who returned for rest and who have high scores. They will be eligible for discharge "right away," he said.

The Army previously had explained that in addition to the 1,300,000 men expected to be eligible for discharge under the demobilization program (the normal attrition rate, discharge for physical reasons and other factors) will bring the total for the next 12 months up to approximately 2,000,000.

The department said it plans to increase the 1,300,000 figure by keeping Selective Service calls at the present level which was fixed on a replacement basis.

Tompkins said the Army is "still going to call on the 18-year-old group to the maximum that can be furnished" and he added he was certain that draft boards will continue to take some men over 30.

Tompkins said he did not think it possible at present to make any change in the policy of drafting fathers.

HITLER

proof air-raid shelter underneath the new Reich chancellery.

It has been linked by deep underground passages with shelters under the nearby Wilhelmplatz, the great air ministry building 500 yards away in the Leipzigerstrasse, and the high command building in the Bendlerstrasse on the Leutow Ufer, about a mile distant. There were other big underground shelters under the Tiergarten park. The whole was linked together by passages to form a great subterranean fortress.

Definite Evidence Lost

It was not until the whole of Berlin had been brought crashing in a mass of ruins and while the underground fortress had been burned out yard-by-yard by Soviet flame-throwers that the last great stronghold of Nazism fell.

Somewhere amid this underground labyrinth of ruins, his body charred beyond real recognition by flamethrowers, Adolf Hitler probably met his death. The Russians believe he might have been killed beforehand by the people around him. But the flames that finally swept through the subterranean passages probably destroyed forever any definite evidence of how the Nazi leader was wiped out.

opportunity to conclude peace with Great Britain and America at any time. We are similar races—the Nordic type—and it is senseless to beat one another to death."

Kesseling was asked if he thought the German army could have fought better without Hitler's "intuitive" leadership.

"To give justice to Der Fuehrer," he said, "I must say he was a genius in operations sense and conception. Sometimes, however, the ideas of genius are misunderstood."

"I only regret that Der Fuehrer had to direct Germany's military, political and economic life. He was overtaxed by the weight of his burdens."

Respects Allied Chiefs

Discussing the war in general, Kesseling singled out Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, Gen. George S. Patton and Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder among the Allied commanders who had won his respect and admiration.

Kesseling recalled a statement by Montgomery that whoever had the superior air force would win the war.

"As an old Luftwaffe soldier, I cannot deny the truth of those words," he said. "Dive bombings and terror attacks on civilians and heavy bombardment were our undoing."

He asserted the Germans "never did entertain the idea of using gas."

"We are not as bad as you believe us to be," the marshal added. He followed up with these assertions:

"It is impossible that the Germans dressed in American uniforms in the Ardennes offensive. There are unwritten laws we all observe."

"I have seen an extreme increase in the ability of American and English soldiers in combat. We have always spoken of our aggressors with the greatest esteem. We are not content with the customs of New Zealanders, but every people have their customs."

"With enough German soldiers in it—yes, we could have held the Siegfried line. But in six years their quality and number declined."

"I don't know why we didn't invade England after Dunkerque. We should have done it."

"Soldier to soldier, I can only say that on the other side leadership has been very skilful and adaptable to all events."

The War Today

By DeWitt MacKenzie

is no sign so far as I can see that Russia is bent on territorial expansion as such, although she does intend to insure friendly buffer states on her frontiers.

It strikes me that the basic difficulty among the Big Three lies in suspicions of one another—fears of something which might happen, but might not happen. That probably is mainly due to lack of acquaintance. It may disappear as Russia emerges so that we can see more of her—and so she can see more of us. For a generation Russia has been living within herself and has become a stranger. But the attitude of the Russian people seems to be friendly enough when they turn out and shout "long live the great American people!"

I think we are justified in believing that trouble with Russia is not inevitable.

27 MINERS KILLED IN BLAST IN UTAH

SUNNYSIDE, Utah, May 10.—Twenty-one miners were killed when a roaring explosion sprayed flames and gas through the Utah Fuel company's No. 1 mine in this central Utah coal digging center.

Two others were missing and believed dead. Seven injured were taken to hospitals. Three escaped injury.

Deadly fumes which spread all through the mine following the explosion three miles underground hampered rescue operations. The explosion partially blocked the shaft, forcing rescue workers to dig away debris before they could search for the bodies.

Survivors attributed the blast to "black damp," a miner's term for accumulated fine coal dust which explodes upon coming in contact with an electric spark.

Colorful, Close County Meet Expected At Stadium Friday

East Palestine Favored To Grab Title In 42nd Annual Columbiana County Contest

Friday's Columbiana county track meet, scheduled at Reilly field, promises to combine all the color, tradition and rivalry of the state's oldest county meet with a touch of the once-famous Salem Night relays, now discontinued because of the war.

When Salem, East Liverpool, Columbiana and East Palestine High school athletes gather here Friday, they will face a set of records—compiled over a 41-year span—which are equaled by none in any similar meet in the state.

Salem, the defending champion, will have a difficult task carved out this year, as East Palestine comes armed with a host of veterans, Columbiana with some speedy dash men, and East Liverpool with a better-than-fair all-around club.

In 1944 Salem won the meet at East Palestine by the largest margin any team ever compiled over the second place squad. That mark will be nearly impossible to duplicate this year—as the teams are evenly matched.

To add more than the usual color to the affair, Fred Cope has arranged a parade through town before-hand by the Salem High school band. A flag raising by the band and Boy Scouts will take place at the stadium at 7:30.

The championship trophy and individual awards will be presented to the winning team and winners of each event by Salem High's Football Girl, Elaine Slosser. She will be assisted by Zuanita Whaley, Ruth Zeek and Regina Luffey.

Dave Williams, veteran track official who has handled this meet for 20-odd years, will again act as referee. He will be assisted by Ralph Zimmerman, clerk of course; John Russ of Youngstown, starter; Andrew Lindsay of Youngstown, chief timer; Bruce Hamm of Youngstown, head judge of weights; O. S. Ellis of Youngstown, head judge of jumps; Larry Brown of Ravenna, track inspector; Don Beattie, head scorer; Heinie Wagner of Warren, head finish judge, and Ray Reasbeck, announcer.

Cope has slated the weights and high jump, both preliminaries and finals, to begin at 6, while preliminaries in the 100 and 220 yard dashes will be run off before 7:30 he said.

Finals in all events will get under way at 7:30 with the final stages of the meet being performed under the lights.

Records for annual affair are: 100 yard dash—Time 10 seconds—Gaines of Columbiana in 1918.

Pole vault—Height 12 feet 8 inches—Allen of Salem in 1928.

Shot put—Distance 48 feet, 2 inches—Russell of Salem in 1933.

Discus—Wagonhouse of Leontina in 1931.

440 yard dash—Time 52 seconds—Gaines of Columbiana in 1920.

High jump—Height 6 feet 1 inch—Lutch of Salem in 1937.

120 yard high hurdles—Time 15.4 seconds—Switzer of East Palestine in 1936.

220 yard dash—Time 22 seconds—Gaines of Columbiana in 1919.

Discus throw—Distance (old weight 4 lbs, 6 oz.) 127 feet 7 inches—Smith of Salem in 1931. (New weight 3 lbs, 9 oz.) 140 feet 11 inches—Kell of East Palestine in 1943.

Broad jump—Distance 21 feet 8 inches—W. Enriken of Columbiana in 1937.

Half mile run—Time 2 minutes 35 seconds—Harris of Salem in 1933.

220 yard low hurdles—Time 26 seconds—Mort of East Palestine in 1935.

Mile relay—Time 3 minutes 40.9 seconds—East Palestine in 1935.

Half mile relay—Time 1 minute 32.2 seconds—Columbiana in 1937.

Bucks Beat Ohio U.
COLUMBUS, May 10.—A single by substitute Third Baseman Algray Versen with two out and the bases loaded in the ninth inning enabled Ohio State to defeat Ohio University, 6 to 5, yesterday. The visitors outthrew the Bucks 10 to 6.

Hitless Contest
CLEVELAND, May 10.—Ira Godin of Cleveland University High school pitched a no-hit game yesterday and his team defeated Cleveland Collinwood 15 to 0. It was the fourth no-hitter hurled by a High school pitcher here this season.

Newark Wins Track Meet
NEWARK, May 10.—Newark won its 12th consecutive Central Ohio league track championship yesterday, piling up 89½ points to 73 for Marietta and 39½ for Zanesville.

TIGERS BREATHING DOWN SOX'S NECKS IN TIGHT TOP RACE

Cleveland Wins Second In Row With Ninth Frame Single by O'Dea

BY JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
Detroit was breathing on the necks of the first place Chicago White Sox today only a half game behind because Dizzy Trout still had the heat on the New York Yankees.

For the seventh time since August 24, 1943, the colorful right hander from the Indiana farm country had turned back Joe McCarthy's club.

Trout's fourth success of the year, coming at the opening of the Yankees' first Western trip, served to accentuate the positive value of the Tigers' three-star mound staff. It was the Dizzy one's fifth complete game to four for Al Benton and two for Hal Newhouser, a total of 11 in 15 contests.

Looked Like Old Story

As the Bengals elbowed past New York into second place it was beginning to look like the same old story all over again. One had three-run fifth inning cost Rookie Al Gettel his first defeat, 4-1.

Mel Ott's 49th major league homer in the New York Giants' night game 6-1 nod over Cincinnati before 23,303, tied Ottie with the late Lou Gehrig's third place in the all-time home run derby. Only Babe Ruth with 714 and Jimmy Foxx with 527 were ahead.

Ott's homer was incidental to the Giants' victory in their first inter-sectional test as a four-run first inning attack on Arnie Carter was the clincher. Harry Feldman had little trouble nothing his fourth straight by scattering seven blows. Johnny Rucker, New York center-fielder, stretched his consecutive hitting streak to 18 games, tops in the majors but long removed from Joe DiMaggio's 56.

Bums Beat Cards

Brooklyn earned a 6-4 verdict over the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals for their fifth successive triumph. Rookie Vic Lombardi tightened up in the clutches to minimize 10 Carl hits as Dixie Walker bashed a triple and double to doom Harry Brechen.

Paul Derringer saw his four-game streak go up in smoke as he and the Chicago Cubs bowed to the Phillies, 5-2. Bill Lee was the winner over his old mates.

Tommy O'Brien's double with the bases loaded started Pittsburgh off to a 9-5 edge over the Boston Braves and a decision for Preacher Roe over Jim Tobin.

Cleveland shaded the Red Sox, 2-1, on a pinch single by Paul O'Dea with the sacks choked in the last of the ninth to give Alie Reynolds the edge in a tight duel with Jim Wilson.

The season's smallest crowd, 941, saw the White Sox score a 6-4 triumph over Philadelphia on Thornton Lee's effective chucking. St. Louis was rained out of a home night date with Washington.

Louisville Nips Quakers 66-52 In Dual Meet Under Lights At Reilly Wednesday

A talented collection of Louisville High school track men, performing in football weather, handed Salem High's Quakers a 66-52 defeat in a dual affair under the lights at Reilly stadium last night.

The victors walked away with nine of 14 firsts, four seconds and 10 third places. Salem notched five firsts, seven seconds and two thirds.

Originally scheduled for Tuesday, the meet was run off last night after V-E day interrupted plans. Coach Wayne Ashbaugh's charges showed versatility in all events and managed to show their point-winning mettle in the final events to clinch the meet.

For Salem the five firsts came from Mutt Schaeffer's 440 yard dash, Bob Boone's high jumping, Bill Ward's 28-second 220 low hurdles, John Stotta's good 161-second high hurdling job and Dick Baughman and Bob Roessler's 10 ft. 6 in. vaults in that event.

Walt Brian nabbed a second in the discus, Schaeffer a second in the broad jump and Francis Lanney placed No. 2 in the rather slow 100 yard dash.

Bill Stoudt grabbed a No. 2 spot in the high hurdles, Thorne a second in the mile run and Bob Little a second in the half mile. Ward also placed second in the 220 yard dash.

Quakers Get 2 Thirds
Louis Juliano placed third in the shot, and Stotta third in the low hurdles.

Ward and Schaeffer paced the Quakers with eight points each and Louisville's Leroy Van Horn and Jim Riley led for individual honors with 11 each.

None of the times nor distances approached the county marks and were considerably under records for dual meets.

The results:

BELL'S BLASTING STOPS HUNTER IN CLEVELAND BATTLE

Youngstown Uses Wham Power to Earn Technical Kayo

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, May 10.—Larruping Tommy Bell was one up and two to go today in his drive for a crack at welterweight Champion Freddy Cochrane's title.

The 146-pound Youngstown slugger hammered a technical knock-out over Cleveland's Chuck Hunter last night, winning the opener of Matchmaker Larry Atkins' tournament to select an opponent for Cochrane. Hunter weighed 146½ lbs. Bell is to meet Jimmy Doyle of Los Angeles here June 7 in the finals.

Referee Jackie Davis stopped the slaughter last night in the fifth round after Bell knocked the Cleveland flat as a flounder fillet for the third time in the set.

Exciting Minutes

The 7,362 fans all but raised the Arena roof as Hunter, game but helpless, struggled up and stood, arms dangling, just before Davis called halt.

The bout started slowly although Bell carried the fight from the opening punches. The second was lukewarm but in the third Tommy unleashed his double-barreled barrage, rocking Hunter on his heels. The punishing attack continued without letup through the fourth and the end came at 2:52 of the fifth. The gate was $22,625.

Colorful, Close County Meet Expected At Stadium Friday

East Palestine Favored To Grab Title In 42nd Annual Columbiana County Contest

Friday's Columbiana county track meet, scheduled at Reilly field, promises to combine all the color, tradition and rivalry of the state's oldest county meet with a touch of the once-famous Salem Night relays, now discontinued because of the war.

When Salem, East Liverpool, Columbiana and East Palestine High school athletes gather here Friday, they will face a set of records—compiled over a 41-year span—which are equaled by none in any similar meet in the state.

Salem, the defending champion, will have a difficult task carved out this year, as East Palestine comes armed with a host of veterans, Columbiana with some speedy dash men, and East Liverpool with a better-than-fair all-around club.

In 1944 Salem won the meet at East Palestine by the largest margin any team ever compiled over the second place squad. That mark will be nearly impossible to duplicate this year—as the teams are evenly matched.

To add more than the usual color to the affair, Fred Cope has arranged a parade through town before-hand by the Salem High school band. A flag raising by the band and Boy Scouts will take place at the stadium at 7:30.

The championship trophy and individual awards will be presented to the winning team and winners of each event by Salem High's Football Girl, Elaine Slosser. She will be assisted by Zuanita Whaley, Ruth Zeck and Regina Luffey.

Dave Williams, veteran track official who has handled this meet for 20-odd years, will again act as referee. He will be assisted by Ralph Zimmerman, clerk of course; John Russ of Youngstown, starter; Andrew Lindsay of Youngstown, chief timer; Bruce Hamm of Youngstown, head judge of weights; O. S. Ellis of Youngstown, head judge of jumps; Larry Brown of Ravenna, track inspector; Don Beattie, head scorer; Heinie Wagner of Warren, head finish judge, and Ray Resneck, announcer.

Cope has slated the weights and high jump, both preliminaries and finals, to begin at 6, while preliminaries in the 100 and 220 yard dashes will be run off before 7:30 he said.

Finals in all events will get under way at 7:30 with the final stages of the meet being performed under the lights.

Records for annual affair are: 100 yard dash—Time 10 seconds—Gaines of Columbiana in 1918. Pole vault—Height 12 feet 8 inches—Allen of Salem in 1928.

Shot put—Distance 48 feet, 2 inches—Russell of Salem in 1933. Mile run—Time 4 minutes 32 seconds—Wagonhouse of Leetonia in 1931.

440 yard dash—Time 52 seconds—Gaines of Columbiana in 1920. High jump—Height 6 feet 1 inch—Lutch of Salem in 1937. 120 yard high hurdles—Time 15.4 seconds—Switzer of East Palestine in 1935.

220 yard dash—Time 22 seconds—Gaines of Columbiana in 1919. Discus throw—Distance (old weight 4 lbs. 6 oz.) 127 feet 7 inches—Smith of Salem in 1931. (New weight 3 lbs. 9 oz.) 140 feet 11 inches—Kell of East Palestine in 1943.

Broad jump—Distance 21 feet 8 inches—W. Enriken of Columbiana in 1937. Half mile run—Time 2 minutes 35 seconds—Harris of Salem in 1933.

220 yard low hurdles—Time 28 seconds—Mort of East Palestine in 1935. Mile relay—Time 3 minutes 40.9 seconds—East Palestine in 1935. Half mile relay—Time 1 minute 32.2 seconds—Columbiana in 1937.

TIGERS BREATHING DOWN SOX'S NECKS IN TIGHT TOP RACE

Cleveland Wins Second In Row With Ninth Frame Single by O'Dea

BY JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
Detroit was breathing on the necks of the first place Chicago White Sox today only a half game behind because Dizzy Trout still had the heat on the New York Yankees.

For the seventh time since August 24, 1943, the colorful right hander from the Indiana farm country had turned back Joe McCarthy's club.

Trout's fourth success of the year, coming at the opening of the Yankees' first Western trip, served to accentuate the positive value of the Tigers' three-star mound staff. It was the Dizzy one's fifth complete game to four for Al Benton and two for Hal New-houser, a total of 11 in 15 contests.

Looked Like Old Story
As the Bengals elbowed past New York into second place it was beginning to look like the same old story all over again. One had three-run fifth inning cost Rookie Al Gettel his first defeat, 4-1.

Mel Ott's 494th major league homer in the New York Giants' night game 6-1 nod over Cincinnati before 23,395, tied Ott's with the late Lou Gehrig's third place in the all-time home run derby. Only Babe Ruth with 714 and Jimmy Foxx with 527 were ahead.

Ott's homer was incidental to the Giants' victory in their first inter-sectional test as a four-run first inning attack on Arnie Carter was the clincher. Harry Feldman had little trouble notching his fourth straight by scattering seven blows.

Johnny Rucker, New York centerfielder, stretched his consecutive hitting streak to 18 games, tops in the majors but long removed from Joe DiMaggio's 56.

Bums Beat Cards
Brooklyn earned a 6-4 verdict over the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, for their fifth successive triumph. Rookie Vic Lombardi tightened up in the clutches to minimize 10 Card hits as Dixie Walker bashed a triple and double to doom Harry Brecheen.

Paul Derringer saw his four-game streak go up in smoke as he and the Chicago Cubs bowed to the Phillies, 5-2. Bill Lee was the winner over his old mates.

Tommy O'Brien's double with the bases loaded started Pittsburgh off to a 9-5 edge over the Boston Braves and a decision for Preacher Roe over Jim Tobin.

Cleveland shaded the Red Sox, 2-1, on a pinch single by Paul O'Dea with the sacks choked in the last of the ninth to give Allie Reynolds the edge in a tight duel with Jim Wilson.

The season's smallest crowd, 941, saw the White Sox score a 6-4 triumph over Philadelphia on Thornton Lee's effective chucking. St. Louis was rained out of a home night date with Washington.

BELL'S BLASTING STOPS HUNTER IN CLEVELAND BATTLE

Youngstown Uses Wham Power to Earn Technical Kayo

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, May 10.—Larruping Tommy Bell was one up and two to go today in his drive for a crack at welterweight Champion Freddy Cochrane's title.

The 146-pound Youngstown slugger hammered a technical knockout over Cleveland's Chuck Hunter last night, winning the opener of Matchmaker Larry Atkins' tournament to select an opponent for Cochrane. Hunter weighed 146½.

Bell is to meet Jimmy Doyle of Los Angeles here June 7 in the finals.

Referee Jackie Davis stopped the slaughter last night in the fifth round after Bell knocked the Cleveland flat as a flounder fillet for the third time in the set.

Exciting Minutes
The 7,362 fans all but raised the arena roof as Hunter, game but helpless, struggled up and stood, arms dangling, just before Davis called halt.

The bout started slowly although Bell carried the fight from the opening punches. The second was lukewarm but in the third Tommy unleashed his double-barreled barrage, rocking Hunter on his heels.

The punishing attack continued without letup through the fourth and the end came at 2:52 of the fifth. The gate was $22,625.

Victory Day Service Is Held At Newgarden

"What I Did Nov. 11, 1918" was the roll call response at the V-E day service at the New Garden church Tuesday evening. The service opened with community singing and devotions. A letter was read from Pfc. John Ward, Luxora, Ark., who stressed the importance of letters from home. Ray Sanor gave a talk on the significance of V-E day. Predictions on the end of the war, made on Mother's day, 1944, were read, and the prize awarded to Miss Helen

Purse Found 2 Years Later

WABASH, Ind. — Mrs. William Hartman was indeed surprised when two years after she had lost her purse containing $70.82, it was turned into police by Paul McGinnis, a farmer, who said he found it in some melted snow.
